1. My Dream House

Instructions:

1. Brainstorm ideas of a perfect house.

2. Hand out My Dream House worksheet to each learner. Go over the vocabulary words. Add any words the learners may have used to describe a house.

3. Review the use of a, an or nothing (-) before vocabulary words.

4. Have the learners write a paragraph describing their dream house. Learners can use simple sentences with has or would have. These forms can be introduced here.
My Dream House

Think about the kind of house you want. Look at the list of ideas to help you decide.

1. bungalow (one floor)
2. two-story (two floors)
3. new home
4. older home
5. central air
6. fireplace
7. how many bedrooms?
8. how many bathrooms?
   - “full bathroom” means a sink, a shower/tub, and a toilet.
   - “1/2 bath” means a sink and a toilet.
9. vinyl siding
10. stucco
11. brick accents
12. fence
13. deck
14. trees
15. big yard
16. small yard
17. close to a school?
18. close to shopping?

Describe the kind of house you would like to buy.

Activity 2

Purpose:
- to learn the spelling and use of comparative adjectives
- to use adjectives to describe houses
- to use Real Estate flyers or a local newspaper to compare houses

CLB Level: 2/3

Time:
30 minutes

Materials:
- Comparing Houses worksheet for each learner
- Adjective cards for each pair of learners (Adapted from Grammar Dimensions 1)
- Real Estate flyers

(For each set of opposite adjective cards use a different colour of paper. It is much easier to separate the sets when different colours are used.)

- The Adjective cards can also be used for an activity on Opposites.

Instructions:

1. Explain how comparative adjectives are used by drawing a small object and a large object. A is bigger than A.

2. On the board make three columns:

| -er than | more ___ than | -ier than |

Explain how comparative adjectives are formed.
* One syllable words take on -er e.g. nicer, smaller etc.
* One syllable words that are consonant, vowel, consonant take on the last consonant and then -er. e.g. bigger, hotter, etc.
* Two or more syllables take on more___ e.g. more beautiful, more comfortable, etc.
* Two syllable words that end with /y/: Change the /y/ to /i/ and add -er (ier) e.g. happy – happier, funny – funnier, etc.

3. Give a few examples of sentences emphasizing the use of “than” after the comparative.

4. Hand out the Adjective cards to pairs of learners. Have them put the adjectives into four piles:

| -er | more ___ than | -ier | irregular |

Optional: Put the last 3 rows aside when cutting the adjective cards. Finish cutting the top section of the cards. Then cut the bottom section. Combine a different coloured bottom set with a different coloured top set. This makes the task a little easier to complete in a shorter time frame.

7. In pairs, learners make five sentences using the comparative form of the adjective.

  e.g. This house is bigger than my old house.

    The ceiling in the newer house is higher than the ceiling in the older house.
8. Hand out Comparing Houses worksheets to learners. Look at the two advertisements as a whole group. Go over vocabulary. What do students like about the houses, what don’t they like?

9. Fill in the comparative adjectives in pairs. Do they agree with the statements? Make true statements out of the “No” answers by using opposite adjectives.

10. Learners look at Real Estate flyers or a local newspaper. Assign each learner a page to look for a house and compare it to a house another learner has chosen.

2 Comparing Houses worksheet
3. House-Hunting

Instructions:

1. Review housing vocabulary – bungalow, duplex, upstairs, downstairs, second floor, full bathroom, lot, pine trees, oak trees (pictures) and any other vocabulary necessary.

2. Discuss with the class what the term house-hunting means. Hand out Dialogue 1: House-Hunting to half the class. Hand out Dialogue 2: House-Hunting to the other half of the class. Learners who have Dialogue 1 pair up with another learner who has Dialogue 1 and practice the dialogue. Learners who have Dialogue 2 pair up with another learner who has Dialogue 2 and practice that dialogue. Circulate among pairs, giving definitions and pronunciation as needed.

3. A partner pair with Dialogue 1 forms a group with a partner pair that has Dialogue 2.
   - Partner pair 1 presents their dialogue while Partner pair 2 listens and checks the statements that are true.
   - Then Partner pair 2 presents their dialogue while partner pair 1 listens and checks the statements that are true.

3. With the same groups, hand out the Discussion Questions. Review the questions as a class and give an example of what a sentence could look like. Try to encourage learners to use comparatives.
   - Sample answers for Dialogue Questions:
     1. The yard was bigger.
     2. The houses were smaller.
     3. I would have more trees.
     4. Renting. There is less paperwork.
Dialogue 1: House-Hunting

Sam: I’m calling about the house you have for sale.
Realtor: Which one?
Sam: The one on Tenth Street.
Realtor: O yes. The bungalow.
Sam: How old is it?
Realtor: It’s 15 years old.
Sam: How many bedrooms does it have?
Realtor: Let’s see. Three on the main level and one downstairs.
Sam: And how many bathrooms?
Realtor: There’s a 4-piece bathroom on the main level and a 2-piece bathroom downstairs.
Sam: How big is the lot?
Realtor: It’s 100 feet by 150. It has a beautiful yard with pine trees and a few oak trees in back. It’s also close to the elementary school . . . if you have children.
Sam: I’d like to see it today.
Realtor: Why don’t we meet there at 7:30?
Sam: How about 7:00?
Realtor: Sure. At 7:00. See you then.

Listen to the conversation and check (✓) the answers that are true.

1. The house for sale is on Fourth Street. The house for sale is on Fifth Street.
2. The house is nine years old. The house is five years old.
3. The house has one bathroom. The house has one bathroom on the main level.
4. The yard has a flower garden and a fence. The yard has a flower garden and a shed.
5. Carol thinks the house is a little small. Carol thinks the yard is a little small.
6. The house is $115,900. The house is $159,000.
7. The appointment is on Friday at 4:00. The appointment is on Friday at 5:30.
Dialogue 2: House-Hunting

Carol: I’m calling about the house you have for sale.
Realtor: Which one?
Carol: The one on Fourth Street.
Realtor: Yes. The duplex.
Carol: How old is it?
Realtor: It’s 5 years old.
Carol: How many bedrooms does it have?
Realtor: Let’s see. Three.
Carol: And how many bathrooms?
Realtor: There’s a full bathroom on the second level.
Carol: How big is the lot?
Realtor: It’s 36 feet by 100. It has a beautiful flower garden and a shed in the back yard.
Carol: The yard is a little small. How much are you asking for the house?
Realtor: $115,900. Would you like to make an appointment to see it?
Carol: OK. How about on Friday at 4:00?
Realtor: Friday? Could we meet at 5:30?
Carol: OK 5:30. I’ll meet you there.

Listen to the conversation and check (√) the answers that are true.

1. Sam is thinking about buying a house.  Sam is thinking about renting a house.
2. The house is on Tenth Street. The house is on Seventh Street.
3. The house is fifty years old. The house is fifteen years old.
4. The house has three bedrooms. The house has four bedrooms.

7. It has a beautiful yard with trees. It has a beautiful yard but no trees.
8. Sam and the realtor meet at 7:00. Sam and the realtor meet at 7:30.
Discussion Questions:

1. How was your last home better than the one you live in now? How was it worse?

2. Were houses more environmentally friendly 50 years ago? Why or why not?

3. If you could change anything in your house what would it be?

4. Is it better to rent or buy? Why? What are some advantages and disadvantages?
4. Sara’s New House

Instructions:

1. Learners discuss how they purchased their houses and how they furnished them – where did they shop, what did they buy, etc.

2. Hand out the Sara’s New House worksheet. Tell the class that this is a story about Sara. She decided to buy a house last month. This story is told in the past. Solicit irregular past tense verbs from the learners. Write the past tense vocabulary on the board or have the learners spell out the words. As a class find the –ed past verbs. See Answer Key below.

3. Depending on your level of class you can use the vocabulary definition cars as a pre-reading task or a review of new words. Hand out the Vocabulary Definition cards to each pair of learners and have them match the vocabulary and definitions. Learners find vocabulary words in the Sara’s New House.

4. Read through Sara’s New House together. Learners take turns or teacher reads and learners repeat. Pause often for clarification or pronunciation.

5. Learners match pictures with paragraphs.

6. Learners answer the Multiple-choice questions and share answers.

Sara’s New House

Last month, I decided to move out of my apartment and find a house. I have two dogs, four cats and six goldfish and my one-bedroom apartment was too small for us. I needed a bigger house to live in. I (1) think a three-bedroom house would be perfect.

I looked in the newspaper and (2) find some houses that I wanted to see. The first house (3) is an old house with a big yard and a swimming pool. I was worried about this house because it needed too many repairs. I’m not very good at fixing things and I don’t want to hire someone to do the repairs. Then I (4) see a townhouse, but it didn’t have a front yard or a backyard.

Finally, I saw the perfect house with a “For Sale” sign. I (5) make an offer to the owner and he accepted it. I (6) go to the bank to borrow money for my new house.

I moved in last weekend and decided to buy some furniture. My new house looked too empty. I (7) go to the furniture store, but the furniture (8) is very expensive. I didn’t have very much money. I (9) think about all the food I (10) have to buy for the dogs, cats and goldfish and I (11) think about the money I had borrowed from the bank. I only (12) buy a small table and two chairs. When my family comes to visit me, we can go camping in the backyard.

Sara’s New House worksheet
Circle the best answer.

1. Why does this person want to move?
   a. Her family is coming to visit.
   b. She wants a house with a swimming pool.
   c. Her apartment is too small.
   d. She wants more furniture.

2. What does she think about the house with the swimming pool?
   a. She likes it because it is old.
   b. She’s worried because it needs too many repairs.
   c. She is very happy that it has a swimming pool.
   d. She doesn’t think it’s big enough.

3. Which place did she buy?
   a. The townhouse without a front or back yard.
   b. The old house with the swimming pool.
   c. The apartment she lived in.
   d. The house with the “For Sale” sign.

4. How did she pay for the house?
   a. She asked her family for the money.
   b. She saved all of the money.
   c. She decided not to buy any furniture.
   d. She went to the bank to borrow money.

5. Why did she only buy a table and two chairs?
   a. She didn’t need more furniture.
   b. She didn’t like the furniture at the store.
   c. She thought about all the food she had to buy and the money she borrowed from the bank.
   d. She doesn’t have very many visitors.
5. Is It Big Enough?

Instructions:

1. This is a grammar lesson which is a good follow-up to Sara’s New House. This is a lesson using too, very, enough, not enough. Learners are often familiar with the definition of these words and this lesson reinforces this knowledge. Too and very are adverbs and enough is an adjective.

2. Hand out Too, Very, Enough, Not Enough worksheet to the learners. Go over definitions, taking time to give examples if needed. Use this diagram to help explain too and very.

Complete ① and ② as a class, individually or in pairs.

3. ③ Read Nancy’s description of what she is looking for in a place to live. Learners read over advertisements and decide which place would be the best one for Nancy. Learners make comments using too, enough, and not enough in pairs for the other three. (Number 3 is the best one.) (Learners may want to write sentences but it is also good practice just to make comments focusing on the grammar being taught.)

6. Have learners complete the sentences in the ④Dear Tom and Wendy worksheet using very, too, enough, not enough in their sentences. Go over to correct and have learners write their own letters using similar sentences. Learners could write the letter to you.

Activity 7

Purpose:
- to become familiar with general banking terms
- to learn how to apply for a loan or mortgage

CLB Level:
3+

Time:
20 minutes

Materials:
- Vocabulary Definition cards for each pair of learners
- Client Profiles for half the class
- Banker Questions for half the class

Instructions:

1. Introduce new vocabulary to learners with Vocabulary Definition cards.
   a living  own  owe  debt mortgage  loan  salary  gross income worth  payments  down payment  net income

2. Hand out Client Profiles to half the learners. Pairs should not have the same ones. Let them look over their profiles and then the service they want from the bank in the boxes.

3. Hand out Banker Questions to the other half of the group. Bankers ask clients questions and clients, using their profiles, answer questions. Bankers then decide whether or not to give clients a mortgage/loan. Bankers tell clients why or why not.

4. Banker/client switch roles. The other half are given banker questions to ask clients.

5. Bankers discuss with clients why or why not they would give mortgages and/or loans to clients.

6. As a class discuss who got mortgages and who didn’t and what the reasons were.

For a more complex lesson see www.Bogglesworldesl.com and look for the banking lesson.

7. Donna’s Nightmare

Instructions:

1. Introduce the lesson by saying, “You have bought your house, now the problems begin.” Brainstorm housing problems that learners have now or have had in the past.

2. Hand out Donna’s Nightmare A or B to the learners. Have the learners circle the vocabulary words in the letter. Go through the definitions together. Have the learners go through the vocabulary words orally.

3. Read through Donna’s Nightmare together once. Have the learners read the letter in pairs or as a class. Write the following Discussion Questions on the board and have learners discuss them in pairs or as a class:
   a. Who lives in the house?
   b. What are 4 or 5 things that made this house a nightmare?
   c. What did the plumbers tell Donna?
   d. What advice would you give Donna?

4. This is a good letter to use for teaching the present perfect tense with the use of since and for. There are several examples in the text.
   a. Work through the first page of How Long Have You ... grammar worksheets with the learners before finding the examples in the text.
   b. Find the examples in the Donna’s Nightmare text.
   c. Work through the rest of the grammar worksheet.
   d. Draw the chart of the On the Board Activity on the board and have learners use this as a guideline to ask questions. Let them know they can make their own statements. Divide the class into pairs and demonstrate with this example. One learner makes a statement such as, “I am married.” The other learner asks, “How long have you been married?”

Optional activity: All learners write a sentence following the above format. (I have studied English for 8 months.) Learner 1 tells Learner 2 what he/she has written. Learner 2 tells Learner 1 what he/she has written. Learner 1 then finds another learner and relates the new information to another learner. “Bob has studied English for 8 months.” Learners keep exchanging information. After 5-10 minutes ask learners what they remember about whom.

Donna’s Nightmare

Dear Mr. Fix It:

I’m a single mom who bought a newer home three years ago. I was very excited about having my own home but it has been a nightmare! The first six months we lived there, the sewer backed up, the sump pump quit, the toilets didn’t flush, and the basement flooded. We have been in the house for three years and it has flooded five times!

The contractor told me that he fired the plumber who did the work. I have been frustrated with them for three years now. I hired three different plumbers. They all said that the plumbing is illegal in the house. They said that the plumbing is not vented!

My daughter and I have been sick since we moved here. We always feel tired and we have had flu-like symptoms for a year. I am worried about my daughter. We have phoned the contractor for months to come and fix this problem but he hasn’t come yet. I am fed up with him and I’m thinking about suing him.

Sincerely,

Donna Winters
How Long Have You ...?
(Present Perfect: For/Since)

- The Present Perfect is used for something in the past that is connected to the present.
- The Present Perfect always uses have plus the past participle verb or has plus the past participle verb.

1. Look at the diagram below.

   !Diagram

   - Read the diagram above like this: I have lived in Steinbach for six months.
   - We use for when we talk about a length of time.

2. Look at the diagram below.

   !Diagram

   - Read the diagram above like this: I have lived in Steinbach since July.
   - We use since when we talk about a starting time.

3. Group the following words. Do we use ‘for’ or ‘since’ in front of these groups of words?

   | two weeks | last year | I was a child | 2 p.m. | three hours |
   | 12 years  | 2005     | yesterday     | 8:15   | months     |
   | we moved here | 5 years | a long time   | 10 minutes | years     |

8. A House Nightmare

Instructions:

1. This is a continuation of Donna’s Nightmare discussing plumbing problems more in detail. Hand out Plumbing Problems worksheet to learners and go through the vocabulary together.

   Answer Key:
   1. leaky, dripping  2. blocked, clogged, plugged  3. rusty
   4. broken, worn out  5. noisy  6. low
   7. cracked  8. slow  9. running  10. broken

2. Hand out A House Nightmare worksheet to learners. Write the vocabulary on the board and have learners label these things in the house.

   Vocabulary: roof, attic, ceiling, shower, toilet, sink, refrigerator, pipes, washer/dryer, water heater, cracked pipe, garden hose, furnace

3. Discuss other problems with a house and name the service person that you would need to call.

4. Divide class into pairs. Hand out Calling the Service Technician worksheet. Learner 1 calls the service technician and states a problem. The service technician then points to the problem and writes the number beside it. Learner 2 repeats the scenario with his/her problems. Learners then write down who they need to call and find phone numbers in the classified section of a newspaper or the yellow pages of a phone book. (The latter part may be given as a homework assignment.)

   Answer Key: Customer 1
   1. plumber  2. appliance repair technician  3. plumber
   4. plumber  5. roofer or roofing contractor  6. plumber
   7. plumber (in house problem) public works employee (city problem)

   Answer Key: Customer 2
   1. appliance repair technician  2. plumber  3. plumber  4. plumber
   5. plumber  6. plumber  7. roofer or roofing contractor

Tip: Some examples of what may not be included in a typical policy are:
1. Smoke damage may be covered if from a malfunctioning heating device, but not from a fireplace.
2. Vandalism may be covered if the building is usually occupied.
3. Wind and hail damage to a building exterior may be covered, but not an antennae or satellite dish mounted on the outside of the building.
4. Manitoba residents may want to have "sewer backup" coverage;
5. Property or materials/inventory relating to your home-based or commercial business, or tools and equipment may not be covered, or covered to a limited extent.
6. Contrary to popular belief, many "Acts of God" are covered. Most insurance policies will cover lighting, hail damage, or a tornado striking your home.
